What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorater and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels, (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in affecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of mon-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

A VENERABLE BRIDEGROOM.

Just to prove that Cupid is no respecter of age William Brooks Mason, a negro, who gave his age as 136 years, applied in New York, yesterday for a marriage license. The announcement caused the clerks to grip their desks for support, for Mason, who says he is a street preacher, didn't look much over 60.

When some lightning calculator had figured that the would-be bridegroom was three years old at the time of the "Boston tea party" and four years older than the United States there was plenty of scurrying around by the City Hall attaches to take a look at him.

Mason gave his address as 118 east One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street and his birth place at Havana, Cuba, and admitted that this was his second matrimonial venture in the last 100 years. His first wedding, he said, was a century ago, his wife dying 10 years ago.

Ella Hayes, 28 years old, who gave her address as 68 east One Hundred and Thirtieth street, was the bride elect, and it was her duty to lead the aged victim of Cupid's darts to the license window, as Mason's sight is poor. In no other way did he show signs of great age and was particularly brisk and keen about being married right away.

With that object in view he stepped nimbly downstairs to the marrying room in the basement, where Alderman Smith joined the two.

FROM THE ANTILLES.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows:

One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

VICTIM OF MOB ALIVE.

The negro, Grover Franklin, who on Saturday night was taken away from Sheriff Butler and his deputies in Dothan, Ala., hanged to a tree and shot at, is not dead, as was stated in a dispatch yesterday, but is again in the hands of the law and stands a chance for recovery.

The mob, numbering 200, was so closely followed by the officers and law abiding citizens, determined, if possible, to avert the lynching, that it did not have time to get the victim outside the corporate limits. Hurriedly stringing him up to the first tree, and thinking they had riddled him with bullets, the would-be lynchers fled. On the arrival of the officers the negro was still alive and was immediately cut down and placed in the county jail.

It is said Franklin shot and seriously wounded A. C. Faulk, secretary and treasurer of the oil company, Thursday night, when caught robbing the cash drawer at the mill.

The negro was caught at Webb, Ala., taken to Dothan and was being taken to jail when 200 men swooped down on the sheriff and took the prisoner.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

"To Keep Well

The whole year through," writes L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Me., I and my family used Dr. King's New Life Pills. They have proven most satisfactory to all of us." They tone the system and cure biliousness, malaria and constipation. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 25c.

SUICIDE OF DEBATER.

His pride hurt by losing in a public debate on capital punishment, Seth Schuyler, a Brooklyn schoolboy, 18 years old, hanged himself before a mirror in his home watching his own death struggles as reflected in the glass.

In the argument at the debating club of the Sumner Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church young Schuyler had passionately declaimed against the taking of life by man. He was the leading speaker on the affirmative side for a resolution declaring that capital punishment is cruel and barbarous and should be abolished.

"The law of an eye for an eye is barbarous," he declared. "It is a relic of savagery. Who can describe but those who have actually witnessed them the terrible contortions of the face of a man whose life has been choked out of him by the hangman's noose?"

Schuyler was known to be averse to capital punishment in any form, particularly on the gallows.

The argument of his opponent demolished most of his pleadings, and the judges decided against him.

Schuyler, chagrined by defeat, remained in his home all day Sunday, and at night his mother found him hanging in his room. Round his neck was his long four-in-hand fastened in a slipknot. His face was gray and twisted and the ghastly reflection faced him from a mirror placed so as to allow him to see every detail of his slow death while life gave him sight.

The Price of Peace.

The terrible itching and smarting, incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price 25 cents. For Sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

DeWitt's Little Riser Pills are sold by W F. Creighton & Co.

NUDE RELIGIONISTS.

The band of Doukhobors that recently arrived at Fort William, on the northern coast of Lake Superior, from western Canada, have to be watched night and day to prevent their appearance in public nude

A traveler in Duluth from Fort William Sunday said the authorities are trying to arrange with Russia to bear the expenses of deportation back to Russia. The Russian government asked for the names of the religionists, but the members of the sect refuse to divulge them.

The Doukhobors are without money and the people of Fort William have cared for them. Recently, however, the town was scandalized by the appearance of all the Doukhobors in the street nude. They were hurried back to their quarters and compelled to don their clothes.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette — SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS — AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 21, 1908.

THE Confederate Veterans' Building on Prince street, near Columbus, was the scene last night of a happy gathering. The occasion was the annual observance by R. E. Camp of Confederate Veterans of the anniversary of General Lee's birth, the peerless leader of the Army of Northern Virginia. The affair had been well-conceived and every feature of the programme was enacted without a hitch. The ladies composing the Woman's Auxiliary Society had everything prepared when the members of the camp and their guests arrived, and by their own hands served the banqueters. The menu was choice and prepared with skill, and every one playing a part in the entertainment was at his or her best. The commander of the camp, Mr. W. A. Smoot, presided with dignity and ability, the speakers were fluent and the company attentive and appreciative. Every banquet given by R. E. Lee Camp tends to cement more closely the survivors of the army that fought for four years against tremendous odds. Some of the speakers last night referred to the prolonged siege of Troy, battle of Thermopyæ and other historic struggles and they plainly showed that the survivors were in no sense superior to the man in gray who often fought two battles a day with but one meal a week and that one of the most frugal. Scantily clothed he followed his leader and was with him when he brought the unequal combat to a close. The illustrious man the anniversary of whose birth was being celebrated really needed no human enconiums, as about all that could have been said is apparent to intelligent people of every land. He is in the front rank of the great and good who have occasionally appeared on the globe, and as time goes on and he is more closely studied his fame glows and amazes this generation. There were some gaps in the ranks of R. E. Lee Camp last night, and genial souls who for years had gathered with their fraters on these annual occasions were missing, they having crossed the river to rest under the shade of the trees since the last annual reunion. Many sons of veterans, however, were there, young men justly proud of the fact that their sires were Confederate soldiers. May this fact animate them far more than the transitory things of time and sense, and serve to impel them to perpetuate the principles for which their progenitors contended.

SUMMONED into the Yorkville, N. Y., police court to answer a charge of assaulting a photographer who sought only a snapshot of himself and his bride-to-be, Count Szechenyi, of Hungary, will set up the plea of self-defense. There seems no doubt that the count struck the photographer, Edmund T. Reilly, with his cane. It is understood the nobleman will admit as much. But when Reilly lay in wait to snapshot him, as he left the Vanderbilt Fifty-seventh street mansion for a stroll down Fifth Avenue with his fiance, Miss Gladys Szechenyi maintains that the picture man himself was really disturbing the peace. He will ask Magistrate Finn to rule that he did only what was right when he bounded upon his persecutor and struck him twice—once on the head and once on the wrist with the heavy walking stick he carried. Snapshot people had better take warning from the above.

UNDETERRED by the erratic efforts to make the dirt fly at Panama, Mexico last year opened a railroad from ocean to ocean, and now so small a nation as Guatemala has opened another one. The Guatemalan railroad will have several years in which it can earn money before the United States shall have spent the last of the $300,000,000, or the $500,000,000, that Colonel Goethals says it may cost, and shall have thrown the isthmian canal open to the world.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., January 21.

Senator Tillman is going after Attorney General Bonaparte with his famous pitch fork. The cause is the latter's announcement that he will suspend the operation of that portions of the railroad rate law which requires railroads to cease carrying coal, or other minerals, produced from mines which they own after May 1st of this year. Responding to the appeals of some of the roads which will be affected, the attorney general has declared his willingness to enter into a friendly suit to test the constitutionality of the law and has promised that in the meantime he will not prosecute any of them for failure to obey the law. "I propose to introduce a resolution to inquire into the rights of the attorney general or any other officer of the government to suspend the operation of the direct demands of a law passed by Congress" said Tillman today. "My resolution will inquire into the authority by which the attorney general has entered into any such agreement with the coal roads and in connection with it I shall have the opportunity to submit a few pertinent remarks."

The action of the Senate in rejecting the nomination of Charles Fairbanks to be pension agent for New Hampshire and Vermont, following so closely upon the turning down of four Ohio postmasters, is taken here to indicate that the fight against plans of the administration in which Senators have not been consulted, has begun in earnest. Executive sessions of the Senate will hereafter assume a new interest for it is understood that other Senators besides those from New Hampshire and Ohio have similar grievances about appointments made in their States in the choice of which they were ignored, and that these will be aired. Besides smarting under the loss of personal political prestige involved in the turning down of their recommendations, Senators object to the use of the appointing power of the administration to build up a personal machine in behalf of one presidential candidate. Many of them are personally friendly to Secretary Taft. But they claim that the action of the administration in ignoring the old party organizations in several States can only produce discord for the party, and lessen the chances of victory at the polls. They also declare that there is a strong sentiment in the country against the idea of a President trying to hand down his office to a favored member of his administration. Sensational political developments are therefore anticipated and the extent of the opposition of the old line Senators to the President is likely to be revealed. In the meantime, the Senators are lending all their influence to prevent instructed delegations from being sent to the Chicago Convention, except in States where there are "favorite sons," in the race for presidential nomination. And this, of course, looks badly for Taft on its face, and, certainly presages a remarkable fight in the national convention.

Gen. J. Franklin Bell sets at rest, in his annual report as chief of staff, made today, all doubts as to the opinions the army authorities entertain concerning the anti-canteen law. "Regular and special reports" he says, "made up from time to time, establish the fact that the army, from the lowest rank up, is practically unanimous in its desire to have the canteen established. Even many officers, who, on principle, are opposed to the use of intoxicating liquors, realize that such use cannot be prevented, and that the sale of beer at post exchanges would be the lesser evil."

There was no meeting of the Senate finance committee today and it is not expected that there will be any until after Secretary Cortelyou has responded to the resolution of the Senate calling for a lot of information regarding the recent operations of the Treasury Department. That response is expected next Monday and the next meeting of the committee will probably occur on the following day. Whether it will then be possible to report the Aldrich financial bill to the Senate remains to be seen. It is certain, however, that the delay that has already occurred in the Treasury Department in furnishing the information asked by the Senate will have the effect of considerably postponing the date at which it was originally hoped that the bill might be sent over to the House.

A remarkable political demonstration took place in the House today when Mr. Champ Clark, took Republican Floor Leader Payne to task for criticising the course of the new Missouri members in the House and for making the prediction that Missouri would go republican this fall. Clark said the democrats on July 8 would nominate William J Bryan for President and Missouri would cast her vote for him. Hand clapping and rebel yells greeted the mention of the name of Bryan.

When it subsided the republicans broke out in applause.

"All right," said Clark. "There are not ten men on that side who will stand up and say who they want for President.

Representative Bowtell arose.

"Oh, well, every one knows you are for Speaker Cannon," volunteered Clark. The Speaker at this moment was not in the chair, but in his office.

"Yes, and I go further" agreed Boutwell. "In June we'll nominate Cannon, and in November we will elect him."

"Dont be dead certain of that," retorted Clark. "Will the administration support your Uncle Joe?"

Roars of applause greeted the sallies of the party champions. The membership was at a high pitch of excitement.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 21.

SENATE.

That any attempt to secure governmental aid for future expositions will meet with strong opposition was made manifest in the Senate today, when Messrs. Culberson and Teller objected to consideration of a bill, favorably reported by the committee on industrial expositions, directing the Secretary of the Interior to arrange for a government exhibition of the mineral resources of the United States at the international mining exposition at Madison Square, New York, beginning May 25. Many western States are standing sponsor for the exposition.

HOUSE.

All day was taken by the House in the further consideration of the penal code bill.

Representative Randell wanted a section included prohibiting members of the House, Senators and judges from receiving "favors," such as passes and franks, from public service corporations.

Mr. Randell said he was in favor of an amendment which would prohibit such corporations from employing legislators.

At this point, Mr. Randell's time expired and Mr. Mr. Dalzell refused to give unanimous consent for him to continue 10 minutes.

Mr. Randell asked the chair not to allow any member employed by a corporation to interrupt him.

Mr. Dalzell, white with rage, jumped to his feet.

"If the gentleman means to insinuate that I have —" began Dalzell, but Randall was trying to explain that he did not mean to say Dalzell was so employed.

"The member from Texas says he meant no such insinuation," Chairman Currier tried to explain.

"But his language and his explanation do not agree," interposed Dalzell.

"Well, if the gentleman from Pennsylvania is not so employed let him say so," demanded Randall, getting angry. "Let him announce himself."

"I am not, nor have I been employed by a corporation for twenty years," answered Dalzell.

Applause swept over the republican side, and republican floor leader Payne made a speech, reproaching the democrats for casting reflection on honest members.

HOUSE

A bill amending the present law as to the license tax of physicians, surgeons and dentists was offered by Mr. Hall.

It amends the existing law and provides that every physician, surgeon or dentist who has been licensed for less than five years shall pay $10, and all who have been licensed and practiced five years or more shall pay $15, but in cities and towns of 5,000 inhabitants or more the tax shall be $25, provided that no physician, surgeon or dentist shall be required to pay more than $10 whose receipts are less than $500 per annum. Every physician, surgeon or dentist shall be licensed by the commissioner of the revenue for the district or city wherein such physician, surgeon or dentist has his regular and principal office, and the same shall entitle him to practice anywhere within this State without the payment of any other State license tax. Anyone pursuing a regular course in dentistry shall have the right and be permitted to act as an assistant to a dentist regularly licensed under this section, and shall not be required to procure any license nor pay any licensed tax therefor.

Mr. Brewer offered a resolution that "we petition our representatives in Congress to use their influence in securing the repeal of the general bankruptcy act now in force, believing that it has accomplished the purpose for which it was enacted, and that many evils will result from its continuance in force."

The house passed the following bills:

A bill to amend an act to authorize the several school boards of the school districts in this State to borrow money belonging to the literary fund for certain purposes, and to authorize the loans of said funds for each district. Martin Williams, of Giles, is patron of the amendment.

"An act to amend the section of the code relative to the duties of the clerks of the senate and house of delegates." Speaker Byrd is patron, and the amendment is in increasing the salaries of employes of the two houses.

Those Confederate veterans now receiving $15 a year as a pension from the State will in future, if the favorable report of the House finance committee is accepted, receive $24 per annum.

Banquet Last Night.

Happy Gathering in Confederate Veterans' Building--Thrilling Speeches by Gov. Swanson, Senator Bryan, Representative Flood and others.

It is generally admitted that the banquet given last night by R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans eclipsed any of by-gone years. There was a large attendance, more interest was displayed and the speeches could not have been improved on. The rooms of the Confederate Veterans' Building had been appropriately and tastefully decorated by the Ladies' Auxiliary to Lee Camp, and Confederate colors were everywhere prominent.

The hour for the gathering had been fixed at 7:30 o'clock, and at that time the members of the camp and their guests began to arrive. Half an hour later the company repaired to the banqueting rooms on the first floor, where the scene was most inviting. The tables had been daintily spread by the ladies of the auxillary, and there was a buttonhole bouquet and a miniature Confederate flag for each member of the company.

Commander W. A. Smoot took his position at the head of the table and having rapped the assembly to order Rev. W. J. Morton, of Christ Church, invoked a blessing. The following menu was then discussed:

Lynn Haven Bay oysters, fried oysters, celery, olives, mixed pickles, pickled beets, salted almonds, roast turkey, currant jelly, country ham, cold tongue, chicken, and cold slaw, lobster salad, sliced tomatoes, ice cream, Confederate colors; assorted cakes, oranges, Malaga grapes, cigars, coffee and punch.

After about an hour had been spent in feasting and animating conversation, Commander Smoot again rapped the company to order and announced as the first speaker of the evening Governor Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, who was to respond to the toast, "General Robert E. Lee."

The Governor arose amid great applause, and when it had subsided he began his speech by saying he had always regarded it as a pleasant privilege to speak in Alexandria, and generally accepted all invitations to come here. The Governor said he had delivered three hundred speeches during the past twelve months, and his condition has been such as to warrant the services of a physician. The latter had examined his tongue and told him he needed rest. He, however, notwithstanding the doctor's suggestion, felt proud of the privilege of speaking on this particular occasion, especially from the fact that so many ladies were present. After telling some amusing anecdotes and indulging in pleasantry, the Governor took up his theme in earnest. He began by paying a just tribute to the Army of Northern Virginia, referred to the sacrifice the people of this section of the Commonwealth had made during the trying ordeal of the four years war, paid just tribute to the great men who had from time to time been born in the Old Dominion, recounting their services from colonial days down to the present time. The speaker's eulogy on General Lee was a masterpiece of oratory, and was greatly appreciated by his hearers. The Governor is a close student of history, and his rapid resume of the exciting chapters in the country's annals held his audience spell bound. His tributes to the Confederate soldier and the women of the South were well expressed and justly appreciated. The Governor was at his best and he took his seat amid uproarious applause.

Senator W. J. Bryan, of Florida, was the next speaker. He responded to the toast "The Confederate Soldier." The speaker began his speech by saying he was too young to have been a Confederate soldier, but he was the son of one. The Senator, after indulging in some pleasant observations and telling amusing stories took up his theme in earnest and delivered one of the most thrilling speeches that have been heard in this city for a long time. He took his audience back to the siege of Troy, traced the history of the Greeks and Romans and compared the deeds of the Confederate soldier, his privations and toils to those recorded of the ancients, and proved that those who followed the fortunes of the Confederacy had had no superiors in the world's annals. His references to General Robert E. Lee were in glowing and original terms. He said the anniversary of his birth should be a national holiday, as he was undoubtedly the noblest character that has appeared since the days of Paul. The speaker said when General Lee capitulated at Appomattox General Grant should have tendered his stars and epaulets to the southern leader, as had the latter accepted the command of the federal army Grant would never have been heard of. The Senator took his seat amid great applause.

Hon. H. D. Flood, of Virginia, followed Senator Bryan. His theme was "The Sons of Veterans." The Speaker expressed his gratification at being present. He said it should be a source of honest pride to all who were sons of Confederate Veterans and it was the bounden duty of the the progeny of the latter to perpetuate the memories of their sires and the glorious principles for which they contended. Mr. Flood passed rapidly over the exciting scenes of nearly half a century ago, as well as most of the issues which have beset Virginia from colonial days down to the present time, especially the part the Old Dominion has played in the history of the country. In closing the speaker reminded the sons of Veterans that their sires were dead, but that the principles upon which they acted were immortal. Mr. Flood's address was much enjoyed and he received considerable applause.

Mr. S. G. Brent, Dr. E. A. Gorman, Mr. C. W. O'Meara, and Rev. Messrs. Register and Bulls were subsequently called upon, and they made short impromptu speeches which were much enjoyed.

At the close Adjutant Chas S. Taylor read "General Lee's Farewell Address," and about 11 o'clock the company departed, all having experienced a most pleasant evening.

A letter was received from Gen. G. W. C. Lee, of Ravensworth, expressing his regret at his inability to be present at the banquet, and the adjutant announced that Col. Arthur Herbert, on account of indisposition, was also unable to attend.

Reference is made above to the taste displayed by the Ladies' Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp, who prepared the tables and exercised their skill is the culinary feature of the entertainment. They paid special attention to every one at the tables, anticipating their every wish and promptly serving the many tempting dishes they had prepared.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

Today's Telegraphic News.

From Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Jan. 21.—Bascom Slemp, chairman of the republican State committee, has called a meeting of the committee at Murphy's Hotel, February 1. It is believed that the committee will declare for the candidacy of Secretary Taft.

Three of the State proxies, ex-Gov. Montague, C. V. Meredith and R. Lee Moore, last night kicked out of the traces and refused to vote for a committee to appear before the legislature in opposition to the repeal of the R., F. & P. monopolies. They took the ground that the proxies should not presume to advise the legislature; however, the majority appointed a committee.

Senator Noell in the joint democratic caucus today made a speech against confirming the governor's appointment of Judge Wm. F. Rhea as a member of the Corporation Commission. He declared he had heard that Rhea was guilty of gross election frauds and the accepting of bribes while a judge. The matter was referred to a committee and the nomination was not confirmed. Noell's speech caused a great sensation.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Jan. 21.—District Attorney Jerome stated today that he did not anticipate it would be necessary keeping Mrs. Evelyn Thaw under cross-examination on the witness stand longer than today. In fact, he said, he might finish up by the middle of the afternoon session.

The younger Mrs. Thaw resumed the witness stand at 10:15.

The first questions put to Mrs. Thaw were in reference to the movements of Thaw and herself while they were in Europe, to Thaw's alleged ill-treatment of her, matters which were brought to light at the first trial. Later questions were propounded to the witness concerning her relations with Thaw, White and Abe Hummel after her return to the United States.

Mrs. Thaw was questioned concerning Ethel Thomas, who figured in the previous trial, and the witness was asked if she was living on Thaw's money after returning to New York. She answered yes.

"And accepted presents from White?" asked Jerome.

"Yes sir. I had."

"What jewelry did White give you?"

"A pearl box worth one thousand dollars and some diamond and sapphire rings."

"Did Thaw see these?"

"He did."

"What became of White's presents to you?"

"I gave them all away. I gave them to Will Sturgis."

Jerome then questioned witness at length as to the several times she met Thaw while friendly with White.

Revolution in Haiti.

Port Au Prince, Haiti, Jan. 21.—President Alexis' forces are pressing the revolutionist army hard in Gonaives and news of the rebels, surrender is hourly expected. They are completely surrounded and have not the slightest hope of escape.

One rumor is that General Firmin, in whose interest the uprising was started, landed in Haiti before the rebels were beaten at St. Marc, and driven to take refuge at Gonaives, and that he will be captured with his followers. It is certain he left his refuge at St. Thomas. The general opinion is that he will not escape with his life if he falls into President Alexis' hands.

Alexis is understood to have evidence showing positively that the rising was backed by a New York company with interests in Haiti; that several American filibusters are likely to be captured among the rebels and that formal complaint will be made to Washington in due time of the engineering by Americans of a rebellion against a friendly government.

Investigating Cause of Accident.

Milan, Italy, Jan. 21.—A rigorous investigation has been begun to fix responsibility for last night's wreck on a bridge just outside of Milan in which three trains were demolished, nine persons killed and forty seriously injured. It has not yet been made clear how the express was given right of way over a track on which another train was already standing, and why, after the collision, no warning was given to prevent a third train ploughing into the debris.

SUIT TO ANNUL MARRIAGE.

Arthur Herbert Osborne, the young broker, who secretly married Helen Maloney, daughter of Martin Maloney, of Philadelphia, at Mamaroneck, in 1905, was served yesterday in New York with papers in a suit for annulment of the marriage.

The proceedings are a sequel to the elopement last October of the Maloney girl to London with Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman. The young woman is said to be still infatuated with Clarkson, and, it is declared, that if she wins her annulment suit she will become his wife. Clarkson is now in England.

In the suit, which was filed in the Supreme Court of New York county, the heiress seeks an annulment for three reasons: First, that the marriage was invalid; second, that she did not understand what the ceremony meant, and third, that the marriage was one in name only.

Osborne when seen yesterday would not say what steps he would take as the result of the suit. His friends, however, declared he would fight it. Miss Maloney is with her father at Spring Lake, N. J.

The Woman's Home Companion for February has been received from its publishers in New York. The most important subjects handled editorially, are "The use of Sunday," "Why is the Clean Grocer clean" and "What has been done for the children." Its "Special articles" and "Special departments" are comprehensive and of interest. "Household" and "Fashions" will appeal to women, while the department "For younger readers" will be found suggestive and instructive. Excellent fiction is given in four short stories and a serial by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps.

DEATH OF MICHAEL GERMANN

Mr. Michael Germann, who had for some time been the oldest resident of Alexandria, died at his home on King street this morning after a brief illness. Up to about a year ago the deceased was enjoying the good health which had followed him throughout his long life. Last winter, however, he grew feeble from an attack of grip, and never fully recuperated. About two weeks ago he again became a sufferer from grip which later developed into pneumonia. He grew weaker daily, and, to add to his distress, his wife who had been his constant companion for nearly three-score and ten years, sickened and died last Thursday. Mr. Germann's condition grew more serious daily, and last Sunday afternoon while the bell of the Immanuel Lutheran Church was tolling his wife's requiem, he was destined in less than two days to follow her into the unseen world. He, however, lingered until this morning when his eyes closed in death.

Michael Germann was born on the 9th of March, 1815, near Breidfurth, Bavaria, and was therefore approaching his 93d birthday. In early life he worked upon a farm, but later became a baker and immigrated to the United States. He arrived in Baltimore, where he was married, and in 1844 took up his residence in Alexandria where he had since lived. As was stated in the Gazette last week, when announcing the death of his wife, Mr. Germann opened a bakery in the building adjoining on the east that he occupied at the time of his death. His bakery was an Alexandria institution over three score years ago, and "Germann's bread," up to the time the deceased closed his establishment, was regarded as indispensable in many Alexandria households. The old bakery was demolished about forty years ago and the present brick structure erected on its site. Mr. German was the father of eighteen children, but two of whom (George and Henry) are now living. The deceased was the true type of a quiet and good citizen, and throughout his long life he enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

OTHER DEATHS.

Mr. Patrick Canvan died at his home, No. 2808 Duke street, last night. The deceased was a native of Ireland, and he was 42 years old. He leaves a widow and several children. The deceased was a member of Alexandria Division, No. 1, A. O. H.

Mr. Neville H. Whiting, who was well known in this section of the State, died last night at his home near Marshall, Fauquier county. He leaves a widow and four sons. His widow, who was Miss Meta Hyde, has within a short time lost three brothers and now death has bereft her of her husband. The remains of Mr. Whiting will be brought here for interment in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Marshall died yesterday afternoon after a short illness at her home, near Lorton, Fairfax county. The deceased was 79 years old. Her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. She leaves eight children.

Mrs. Mary Virginia Balinger, wife of George W. Balinger, died on Sunday at the residence of her son, R. C. Balinger, at Upton's Hill, Fairfax county, in the 71st year of her age.

The seven-year-old daughter of Mr. John W. Jacobs died at the home of her parents near Woodlawn, Fairfax county, last night. The deceased had been a sufferer from whooping cough.

ARREST OF SERVIANS.

As was stated in the Gazette, the police yesterday arrested a band of nine Servians upon receipt of a telegram from George H. Richmond, chief of police of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Lucian, George and Mary Marino were held. The gang had been quartered in the Braddock House. Chief Goods last night received another telegram from the Iowa authorities requesting to know whether or not the gypsies would return to Iowa without requisition papers. One of the men stated that he would return in the event he was granted permission to take his three horses with him. Several telegrams were found in the possession of the gypsies from Omaha, Nebr., advising the band to leave this city at once.

Chief Goods today received a dispatch from Chief of Police Richmond at Council Bluffs, to inquire whether they will go to Iowa without a requisition. The Servians refused to go, and they will be held to await requisition papers.

WILLS PROBATED.

The will of the late Mrs. Julia F. Tubman was admitted to probate today. The deceased leaves $100 each to the Alexandria Hospital, the M. E. Church South and the M. E. cemetery. The residue of her estate she leaves to her daughter, Mrs. Wilhelmina Ogden. She named Mr. H. K. Field as her executor. Mr. Field declined to qualify as executor and Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden today qualified as administrator with the will annexed. The court appointed Messrs. H. K. Field, G. E. Warfield and G. L. Boothe appraisers of the estate.

The will of the late Captain John T. Wilkins was admitted to probate today. The deceased leaves his estate to his widow, Mrs. Catharine R. Wilkins, whom he named as executrix.

Chief Justice Clabaugh, of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, yesterday appointed Lucas P. Loving and Tracey L. Jeffords as receivers of Thomas R. Riley, retail and wholesale lumber dealer, Thirteenth street and Ohio avenue. The court fixed their bond at $75,000 jointly.

MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the Dulin & Martin Company was held today at the office of James R. Caton when the following officers were elected: Wm. H. Martin, president; T. C. Dulin, secretary and treasurer; Thomas J. Martin, Jos. J. Lewis and L. C. Shattuck, directors, all of Washington.

The annual meeting of the Abner-Drury Brewing Company was held today at the same office, when the following officers were elected: E. F. Abner, president and secretary; P. A. Drury, vice president and treasurer; Chas. W. Darr, W. S. Knox and Jos. H. Cranford, directors.

At the meeting today of the stockholders of the Las Ovas Company, Inc., the following directors, all of Washington, were elected: Hilary A. Herbert, General George C Reid, Z. T. Souery, George Conrad Reid and Frank A. Kane.

YOUTHFUL TRESPASSERS.

Patrick and Thomas Buckley and Robert Baggett, three boys, were before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning charged with trespassing upon electric cars. The trio had been arrested by Officer Garvey. The evidence showed that the prisoners were representatives of a gang of youths who give railroad men considerable trouble and occasion much annoyance to visitors to Alexandria by persisting in accompanying them as guides. Justice Caton fined the accused $2.50 each, and told them that if they were caught on trains again or at corners where cars stop offering their services to tourists they would be fined $5. Should they be arrested the third time the offenders will be sent to the reform school.

REMAINS SENT HOME.

As was stated in the Gazette, the remains of Engineer Henry A. Lilly, who died at the Alexandria Hospital last Sunday morning, were subsequently placed in the Masonic Temple, where they remained until last night, when they were sent to Norwood, N. C., where the funeral services were held today. The deceased was a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons and of Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar. The following members of the commandery acted as pallbearers and accompanied the remains to the train: Harry Brown, Wm. Bruin, Frank Latham, S. P. Fisher, Clarence Keith and H. M. Hochman. A brother of the deceased accompanied the remains to Norwood.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lucien, George and Mary Marino, charged with grand larceny, arrested at the request of the authorities of Council Bluff, Iowa, were held.

Patrick Buckley, Thomas Buckley and Robert Baggett, charged with trespassing upon electric cars, were fined $2.50 each.

Martha Jackson, colored, charged with assault, was fined $5.

PREPARING FOR THE TWENTY-SECOND.

The Columbia Fire Company will hold a meeting tonight to complete arrangements for entertaining the visiting fire companies from Washington and elsewhere, who will be their guests on February 22. The other companies will shortly take similar action.

The committees of the George Washington Birthday Association are actively at work perfecting plans for the parade, which, it is said, will excel those of previous years.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

The residence of Mr. Dorsey Fair, 406 south Lee street, was the scene of a pleasant gathering last night, the occasion being the 16th birthday of his son, Archie Fair. Those present were Miss Eva Marmaduke, Miss Bessie Phillips, Miss Nellie Chauncey, Miss Ruth Proctor, Miss Kitty Adcock, Miss Susie Pullman and Mr. John Schofield, Paul Pullman, Bishop Arnold, Julian Haislip, and Ralph Fair. Mr. Archie Fair was the recipient of many nice presents.

BADLY BURNED.

Mr. Frank Lucas while at work at the electric railroad power house at Four Mile Run this morning was painfully burned about his face by a flash from the wires. Mr. Lucas was connecting some wires when a monkey wrench which he held in his hand came in contact with one of them. A blinding flash followed and the flames badly burned Mr. Lucas. He came to this city where he was attended by Dr. Gorman. His injuries while painful are not dangerous.

LARGE CROWDS.

The Belle Haven Amusement Company's entertainments are giving satisfaction. Tomorrow night at 9 o'clock the drawing will take place for the hand-worked table cover. The holder of the lucky number must be in the house. See the "Girl from Montana," tonight. This moving picture is very fine and sensational.

Pipes and the Lips.

The constant habit of smoking pipes has a perceptible effect upon the face. The pressure of the lips to hold the pipe in position increases the curvature of the lips round the stem, and the muscles become more rigid here than in other parts. Thus the lips at a certain point become stronger, and the pipe is unconsciously held in the same habitual position. After long continuation of the habit small circular wrinkles form parallel with the curvature of the lips around the stem. These are crossed by finer lines caused by the pressure of the lips to retain the stem in position. In the case of old men who have smoked a pipe for years the effect upon the lips is very marked, not only altering the form of the lips, but of the one entire side of the face, causing the wrinkles that are the result of age to deepen and instead of following the natural course of facial wrinkles to change their course so as to radiate from the part of the mouth where the pipe is habitually carried. Furthermore, one or both lips often protrude, just like the lips of people who used to suck their thumbs when children.—Medical Record.

Wanted the "Grocery Seats."

Leigh Lynch while he lived was a happy man. In the first place, he was the husband of lovely and gentle Anna Teresa Berger, the belle of the bell ringers in her girlhood; secondly, he had the years long friendship and intimate companionship of Eugene Field; thirdly, he was the father of a family of children in whom was centered his unselfish hope. He used to carry his business cares and pleasures home, where he was always sure of ready and generous sympathy. For several years he was treasurer of the Union Square theater in New York. One evening at dinner, in the presence of his little daughter, Marie, he mentioned to Mrs. Lynch that the gross receipts of the week had risen to an unprecendented height. The next day Marie asked to be taken to the matinee.

"All right, dumpling," assented the fond father. "What seats would you like?"

"Well, papa," she replied, "I'd like to have them grocery seats you telled us about."—Detroit Free Press.

A Fatal Austrian Flag.

Once there was an epidemic of plague at Odessa, in Russia, which lasted more than a year. It had a most remarkable origin, being due to a fatal flag. An Austrian vessel arrived at Odessa, bringing one of the crew who had died during the voyage. The sailor was duly interred in the Catholic cemetery at the port, and at the funeral the Austrian flag was carried by two seamen. On their way back to the vessel the men entered a great number of saloons and laid down the flag while drinking. A very short time afterward the sailors who had carried the flag died, and before long it was found that people were ill in all the houses where the men had called with the fatal flag. Soon the plague spread throughout Odessa, filling all with terror and claiming a frightful toll. There is no doubt that the flag contained the plague bacilli in the folds and so spread the disease.—Baltimore Sun.

Strictly Business.

"Sir," began a stranger as he walked directly up to a business man, "I am strictly on business."

"So am I."

"Good! I believe every man should furnish money for his own tombstone."

"So do I."

"Good again! I want to raise $25 to pay for a stone over my grave. What assistance will you render the enterprise? I want a business answer."

"You shall have it, sir. Unless you immediately take your departure I will aid the enterprise by furnishing the corpse."

The stranger hurried off.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Golf as a recreation appeals to practically all ages. Impetuous youth, staid middle age and the man in the evening walk of life alike feel its fascination and enjoy its manifold pleasures. Golf entails walking, the best of exercises for the average man. It trains the eye and the arm, and, while it tries, it ought also to train the temper.—Liverpool Courier.

A Warm Time Coming.
